

In Our New Office Monday

On April 5th the East Bay Water Company will move from the present location to its new and modern office building at 512 Sixteenth Street.

On and after that date all business will be conducted in the new building.

The convenient, central location and the modern, up-to-date facilities of this building will make it easy for you to transact your business with this company.

East Bay Water Company

General Offices and Oakland Business Office
512 Sixteenth Street